

Growing stronger communities in our neighbourhoods through co-production

18TH West Midlands Co-Production Network Workshop hosted by Solihull Metropolitan Borough Council

Date and Time: Wednesday, 7 September 2016, 9:30am – 1:00pm
Venue: Civic Suite, Rear of Council, House ,Manor Square, Solihull, B91 3QB
Map: <http://bit.ly/2baBlmZ>
Car Parks: Council Car Parks - <http://bit.ly/2aTEMxB>,
Parking also available at Touchwood Shopping Centre and John Lewis

Programme

- 09:30 – 10:00 Arrival and poster session
- 10:00 – 10:15 Welcome and introductions
The Mayor of Solihull, Councillor Michael Robinson and Elke Loeffler, Governance International
- 10:15 – 10:35 Sports Intervention and Environmental Projects – Love Solihull
Chris Edgell & Sarah Jones , Neighbourhood Activity Programme & Love Solihull
- 10:35 – 10:55 Early Help – Helping Families at the Earliest Point
Maxine Burrows & Engage team members
- 10:50 – 11:05 Three Trees Community Centre
Neil Roberts, Baptist Church Community Centre in Chelmsley Wood
- 11:05 – 11:15 A cost benefit analysis of co-production at neighbourhood level – the evaluation of the Balsall Heath Neighbourhood Forum
Tony Bovaird, Director, Governance International
- 11:15 – 11:45 The Core – Community Hub Tour
- 11:45 – 12:00 Break
- 12:00 – 12:45 Growing Citizen Power at neighbourhood level: What do local councils know about their local communities?
Introduced by Jim Harte, Assistant Director Stronger Communities Solihull MBC & Elke Loeffler, Governance International
- 12:45 – 13:00 Session – all participants have the chance to share their current co-production activities and projects

