

Building resilient communities for co-production

9th Meeting of the West Midlands Co-Production Network

Thursday 27th June 2013, 1:00pm – 4:00pm

Venue

Raglan Road Christian Centre, Raglan Road, Smethwick, B66 3ND

see map. N.B – the venue has a small car park but there is also on-street parking.

Twitter

hashtag #coproduction

Programme

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| 12:30 - 1:00 | Arrival of participants |
| 1:00 - 1:15 | Welcome and introductions |
| 1:15 - 2.00 | ‘The Friends and Neighbours Scheme’ in Soho/Victoria: How local people can support each other and complement social care services”
Rohit Mistry (Friends and Neighbours Scheme Co-ordinator) and Beverley Stevens, Business Change Manager, Sandwell MBC |
| 2:00 - 2:30 | ‘A Call for Research’: The economic and social value of co-produced community sustainability and resilience’
James Duggan, Manchester Metropolitan University |
| 2.30 - 2.45 | Break |
| 2:45 - 3:15 | Communities Managing Change – Key findings of a new report of the Chamberlain Forum
Paul Slatter, Director, Chamberlain Forum |
| 3:15 - 3.45 | The new Scrapstore initiative of Time2Trade
Dan Grainger, Development Manager, Time2Trade and Andrew Bent, Centre Manager of The Gap Centre |
| 3:45 - 4:00 | Networking session – all participants have the chance to share their current co-production activities and raise issues for future discussion |