

‘CREATIVE WAYS OF CO-PRODUCING BETTER OUTCOMES’
MIDLANDS CO-PRODUCTION PRACTITIONERS NETWORK MEETING

Date and Time

Thursday 26th April 2012, 9:30am – 13:00pm

Venue

The Mailbox, 61 Wharfside Street, Birmingham B1 1RE

The event will be held in the EC Arts 48 Sheet project space in the Mailbox that can be found on the ground floor at the left-hand side after entering through the main entrance (off Navigation Street and Suffolk Street Queensway).

Click here for map and directions

Programme

- 09:00 - 09:30 Arrival
- 09:30 - 09:45 Welcome and introduction of the participants; summary of the last meeting
Facilitation by Lorna Reid, Community Catalysts
- 09.45 - 10.45 EC Arts and the 48 Sheets project
EC Arts talk: public art, transforming space and responding to the built environment to change or refresh people’s perception and experience of both, through artistic intervention.
- 10:45 - 11:00 Break
- 11:00 - 11:45 Whose Shoes? Exploring new perspectives on more citizen-centered social care
Input by Gill Phillips, Nutshell Communications Ltd.
- 11:45 - 12.30 “Problem-solving session”: “Sandwell Friends and Neighbours: How a problem solving approach can create a means of asset building and local investment.”
Input by Rosie Edwards, Sandwell MBC
- 12:30 - 13:00 “Networking session” – outlook to the next meeting, and all participants have the opportunity to discuss issues on co-production.

